I am no beauty queen
I am just beautiful me.

Enter the Dragon, 2021, Oil on linen, 50 x 60cm, $1750

In this painting, I would like to give tribute to Bruce Lee and Mark Rothko: legends who have inspired millions over the years and continue to do so.

Bruce Lee is legacy of self expression, equality and pioneering innovation.

The red background, depicting his fiery personality and the blue symbolising his resilience, his calm and controlled state of mind, is a contrast to his fury.

A dynamic combination of fire and water.

ABOUT THE ARTIST

My name is Bhavana Kapur, an Indian. I am professionally trained as an Architect and an Interior designer and have worked in the industry for more than a decade.

Today, I'm a freelance artist, exploring my passion for art.

Having a strong background as an Architect has helped me interweave the two forms of arts using the same visual elements, organising principles and the same engagement of sense.

Art for me is an expression of oneself, which tells a story, some personal with a deeper meaning, and some at the surface level. Challenging, enjoying and immersing myself in the process and having fun are most important to me.

I love oil paints but also work with watercolours and acrylics.

We live in a beautiful world, what can be better than capturing it on a canvas.
